

Orkney Islands Council

Key Worker Self-Nomination

As you may be aware, Scottish Government has advised us that all local authority schools and early learning and childcare settings should close to children and young people with effect from 17:00 on Friday 20 March 2020.

We have also been advised that the Council should continue to provide access to appropriate learning and childcare (via a learning hub) that allows parents/carers who are designated as key workers to participate in the national response to COVID-19.

A key worker is someone employed in a post that ensures that essential services can be delivered and/or covers tasks within the community which support the vulnerable and aid community resilience. As a broad guide, the definition will include:

- Category 1: Health and Care workers directly supporting COVID response, and associated staff; Health and Care workers supporting life-threatening emergency work, as well as critical primary and community care provision; Energy suppliers; staff providing childcare/learning for other category 1 parents/carers.
- Category 2: All other Health and Care workers, and wider public sector workers providing emergency/critical welfare services, as well as those supporting our Critical National Infrastructure.
- Category 3: All workers without whom there could be a significant impact on Scotland (but where the response to COVID-19, or the ability to perform essential tasks to keep the country running would not be severely compromised).

Parents/Carers who believe that they may be regarded as key workers should complete and e-mail the form below to education.leisure@orkney.gov.uk

If you are unable to provide this by email then please provide the information requested to:
