

1 S6 Pupils - House Captain Applications

Any S6 student who would like to be considered for the role of House Captain should hand in a written note of interest to their guidance teacher by no later than the end of Tuesday 19 June.

The note of interest should include:

- The reasons why you want to be considered for the role of House Captain
- The skills and qualities you can bring to the role.

Your note of interest should be no longer than 500 words.

Successful applicants will be interviewed during the final week of term.

3 All Pupils - Work Experience

Can I remind all pupils who have Work Experience as part of their timetable that they MUST have a Work Placement arranged to begin in August before the end of term. Once your Work Placement is organised a consent form should be returned to Mr Harvey. If anyone is having difficulty in organising a Work Placement then they should speak to their Guidance Teacher or Mr Harvey ASAP.
