2 All Pupils - Mexican Festival

The Modern Languages Department is going to celebrate the Mexican Festival Dia de Los Muertos which takes place on the second of November. Different activities will take place during the week in Modern Languages classes, including some work based on the film El Libro de la Vida.

We are also organising a design competition. If you feel that you have some sort of artistic flair, come and pick up your "calavera de azúcar" (sugar skull) outside S007 on the second floor. You can then decorate it and return it to the Modern Languages Department (with your name at the back) before Thursday, 9th November. The winner will receive a fabulous prize. Vamos!
