6 All Pupils - Into Film Festival

On the Wednesday 13th of November, 10.00am, 30 pupils will be heading to Picky for a free screening of Spiderman: Homecoming. We have 30 places which should fill up quickly, so please give your name to Mr Robinson in F074 or sign up at the office / reception if you would like the chance to catch the latest entry in the MCU!

Orkney Film Focus Festival

Want to programme your own film event for this years FILM FOCUS FESTIVAL?

A MYSTERY MOVIE event will take place on SAT 09 NOV at West Side Cinema in Stromness and will be the chance for anyone aged 25 and under to become film programmers.

Participants will learn from professionals about programming film events and turn their ideas into a real public screening!

Funding will be available to pay for licences, audience transportation and other added activity.

Come and join in for the film event of the year!

There will be an initial meeting on the 11th October in the Orkney Theatre at 13.00.

Any interested pupils give their names to Mr Robinson in Rm F074.

Film Club Special Screening

On the 1st of November we have TakeOne Action in school to hold a special screening of the environmental change film 'Tomorrow'. It was screened at Picky a couple of months ago and was very well received. TakeOne would love all pupils to have the opportunity to see this poignant and vital film in these crucial times for climate change.

13.00, Friday 1st November, Orkney Theatre.
