6 Health and Wellbeing Week

Activities selection opened Monday and over 85% of you have made your activities selection. Well done. Lots of activities filled up to the brim quickly, but plenty of good choices still remain. If you are one of the remaining students still to select then it's not too late to get your choices in, visit the KGS website and follow the link.

Note that all students should have a selection for all three days, please check that is the case for you, if you haven't you will be called to F079 by Mr Soames to fix your selections. If for some reason you are not attending on any of the activities days, then ask your registration teacher to let Mr Soames know so you can be marked as not needing activities.

Step 1: How to video: <https://youtu.be/7DUivhm4HGI>

Step 2: Either on classroom computers, devices or your mobile phones please click on the link to the OASIS website and which you will find on the school website, KGSOrkney.com, make your Activities selections.
www.kgsorkney.com

Step 3: Read the briefs for the 3 Activities you have chosen in detail. Make sure you are happy with any requirements for the activity, cost, clothing, equipment, lunch, times and locations, etc.

7 CRY Heart Screening

There are still some appointments left at our next heart screening event being held at the Pickaquooy Centre on Saturday 4th and Sunday 5th May for anyone aged 14-35 years old.

To book an appointment go to testmyheart.org.uk and look for the dates for Orkney and click on "Register".

You can also get the link on Facebook - Fundraising for Freya Rose.

This event is being funded through the Freya Rose Dalrymple Memorial Fund at Cardiac Risk in the Young.

We will have a cancellation list so if you don't manage to get an appointment please get in touch and you may still get one.

An ECG takes very little time and is completely painless.

9 All Pupils - School Health

This Wednesday will be the final School Health drop in before the summer holidays. We will be changing things up so drop in won't look quite the same - we will keep you informed so keep an eye out in the bulletin after the summer to see how things have changed.

Our referral system for 1:1 appointments will be remaining the same, ask at guidance or fill in a referral card and put it in the post box. We are able to offer support and advice around mental health/wellbeing, anxiety, healthy relationships and lifestyles, sleep, sexual health, substance misuse, online safety and much more.
